

I saw her smile, now I hear her laughter

"I live for moments with my granddaughter, but I missed so much because I couldn't always hear. I missed her first words, whispered secrets and bedtime prayers. Last year, I got help from Hearing Services at Carle Clinic. I had two sets of hearing aids before I came to Carle - but with these I can hear so much more. The service was great. They cared about me - not the sale."

I finally listened, and now I can hear

"My wife was frustrated that I couldn't hear and said I needed hearing aids. I tried two other sets and they didn't really improve my hearing. At Carle Clinic, they care about you – not selling you a product. My wife was right - I did need hearing aids. I'm glad I listened."
